

NEW PATTERNS OF URBAN RISK IN LATIN AMERICA AND THE CARIBBEAN

Latin America is the most urbanized region in the world.

80.7%

of the total population lives in the cities

1/3

of population growth is planned.

In Latin America

2 out of 10

urban inhabitants live in marginal areas.*

In the Caribbean

4 out of 10

urban inhabitants live in marginal areas.*

BY 2050:

Every country with at least 2 million people will be urbanized at 65%

The average urbanization level will raise to 83%

17 countries will be 90% urbanized.

* Data for 2014