80% of events were registered in intermediate and small urban areas.

15% of events were registered in urban areas between 10 and 20 thousand inhabitants.

5% of events took place in cities with more than 1 million inhabitants.

71.8% of deaths occurred in intermediate and small cities.

24.6% of deaths occurred in cities between 10 and 20 thousand inhabitants.

3.6% of deaths occurred in cities with more than 1 million inhabitants.

80% if affected households are in intermediate and small cities.

11% of affected households were in cities between 10 and 20 thousand inhabitants.

5.2% of affected households were in cities with more than 1 million inhabitants.